Where Caring is our Commitment!

In Loving Memory of

James Clinton Hubbard

January 07, 1936 - January 30, 2010

I'LL BE WAITING

*I know it hurts that I had to leave this way
But nothing can compare to Heaven today.
Being able to walk down the street of gold
And to hear all the stories that the saints have told.*

*If you could only see God's glory shine
And to know that here in Heaven a mansion is mine.
I want you to know here there is no sickness or pain
Just all of God's blessings for us to gain.*

*Here in Heaven there is no tears or death
Just having all of eternity with Christ to rest.
When I look back at the things in my life I've faced
I can thank God in person for His loving grace.*

*I know for a time we will be apart
But I want you to know I will be in your heart.
And I am watching from high above the sky so blue
For when it comes your time I will be waiting for you.*
